Saturday night, it is stated Sandy began taunting Carbon about losing his job when the latter ripped out an oath and a 32 caliber revolver at the same time firing a bullet into Sandy's head. It entered the jaw just below the left ear but fortunately did not touch the brain and therefore the wound will not necessarily prove fatal Carbon was arrested by officer Haywood and will be given a hearing tonight.

A Disappointing Celebrity.

An odd impression was that which George Eliot conceived of Schiller after her visit to Weimar with Lewes in the August of the year of "the union," 1854. She was thrilled, she says, by the legend over the poet's old house, "Hier wohnte Schiller," but something in the nature of disillusionment awaited her within. It was very interesting to see his study, left in its original state. But when it came to his skull, "which we saw for the first time, we were amazed at the smallness of the intellectual region."

After that she could take no further pleasure in the contemplation of the too flattering bust and portrait. And then "Rauch told us that Schiller had a 'miserable Stirne'—a wretched forehead," while to complete the destruction of her ideal she heard how "Tieck, the sculptor, was wont to declare that something in Schiller's whole person reminded him of—a camel."—Pall Mall Gazette.

President Hayes' Watches.

President Hayes was in the habit of wearing a cheap nickel watch while in the White House, and much comment was aroused as to the reason. The truth was that almost weekly a deputation of western Indians called upon him, always bringing presents of some kind to the great father. Of course he was expected to give something in return, and the object was to find something cheap and at the same time acceptable. Watches were a novelty to the Indians, and to present a chief with a watch which the great father himself had been carrying always impressed him greatly. Having discovered this and not caring to distribute gold watches or even silver ones, Mr. Hayes hit upon the expedient of buying nickel watches at $36 a dozen and always made it convenient to have one with him against an emergency.

According to a work on Norway, the scantiness of the soil in that country is explained by some of the country people as follows: At the creation of the world the angels whose duty it was to scatter the soil forgot Norway. Seeing this, the guardian angel of the land made complaints to the Creator. What was to be done? Impossible to restart the whole of the creation for the sake of Norway. "Come, my little angels," said he, "look carefully and perhaps you may still find a little earth." The conscience stricken angels swept the floor of heaven, and the little dust they found they gathered in their draperies and scattered over the Norwegian rocks.

Faces and Feet.

An English artist, writing in a London woman's magazine, says:

"I do not know if any one has ever drawn attention to the fact before, that you can generally tell the shape of a woman's foot by her face. There is as much character in a foot as in a hand. You will generally find the round faced, short nosed little woman has the prettiest ankle and foot; the high cheeked, long nosed woman the ugliest. Women with very pretty faces seldom have pretty feet. Nature, somehow or other, compensates its daughters."

Pitched Lower.

In the course of her first call upon one of her husband's parishioners young Mrs. Gray spoke feelingly of his noble, generous spirit.

"He is as nearly an altruist as man may be," she said proudly and affectionately.

"Is he an altruist?" said her hostess, with mild surprise. "I thought from the tone of his voice that he probably was a bass."

Odd Horse Feed.

"What do you think of feeding horses on goose eggs?" asks an Australian backwoodsman. "That was done by a party who were stuck up on the Adelaide during the wet season. The natives used to bring in canoe loads of eggs, which were broken into buckets and supplied to the horses."

Consumption Threatened

C. Unger, 211 Maple St., Champaign, Ill., writes: "I was troubled with a hacking cough for a year and I thought I had consumption. Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs

Aged Couple Elope.

After surmounting numerous difficulties, Isaac Fisher of Marietta, Ohio, aged 78 and Mrs. Rhoda E Porter, a widow, aged 65, of Huntington, W. Va. were successful in outwitting relatives who objected to the match and eloped to Parkersburg, where they were married. After paying for the license and the return car fare, Fisher had but 45c left. However an obliging minister was found, who agreed to perform the ceremony for that amount, after which a large crowd escorted the happy bride and groom back to the trolley car, on which they returned to Marietta.

Begins 25-Mile Walk.

H. L. Cole, a newspaper man from Scranton, is making a novel trip. He is visiting and inspecting every mine in the Wyoming and the Lackawanna districts.

He started in the Avondale colliery, seven miles south of Wilkes Barre, the southernmost colliery of the Wyoming Valley and gradually came north. It is his ambition to say that he has walked underground from Avondale to Scranton, a distance of twenty-five miles. The trip will consume several weeks and he is making a study of each mine.

Horse Bitten By Mad Dog.

With eyes blazing and foam dripping from its mouth a horse owned by William McChesney of Darlington, Pa. terrified the farmers Sunday morning. HAPPY WOMEN.

Wouldn't any woman be happy,
After years of backache suffering,
Days of misery, nights of unrest,
The distress of urinary troubles,
To find relief and cure?
No reason why any reader
Should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Mrs. Almira A. Jackson, of East Front St., Traverse City, Mich., says: "For twenty years I was doctoring for kidney and liver trouble, but without benefit. Just before I began using Doan's Kidney Pills I was almost paralyzed. I could hardly stand on my feet because of the numbness and lack of circulation. Had a knife been thrust into my kidneys the pain could not have been more intense. My sleep was disturbed by visions of distorted figures. The kidney secretions were annoyingly irregular, and I was tortured with thirst and always bloated. I used seven boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. The bloating subsided until I weighed 100 pounds less, could sleep like a child and was relieved of the pain and the irregularity of the kidney action. My circulation is good and I feel better in every way."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mrs. Jackson will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists; price, 50 cents per box.
